

CASA seminar for NFPA 25

DATE: Friday October 24, 2008

TIME: 0830-1630 hrs

LOCATION: Municipality of Chatham-Kent Municipal Offices
315 King Street West,
Chatham, ON N7M -5K8

CONTACT: Andrea DeJong, London Fire Dept
519-661-2500 X0515

WATER BASED FIRE PROTECTION SYSTEMS SEMINAR DESCRIPTION

This one-day seminar describes the responsibility of the owner, contractor and authority having jurisdiction in maintaining a working water based fire protection system. The seminar is based upon NFPA 25. This is a basic level class.

Overview - Provides the attendees with the understanding of the need and requirements to inspect test and maintain a fire protection system.

Goals - Is to familiarize participants with procedures for inspecting, testing and maintaining each system.

Learning Objectives - Participants will learn:

- Components of the system, end their care
- Sprinkler system care
- Standpipe system care
- Water tank end fire service main care
- Fire pump care
- Fixed water system and foam system care
- The impairment procedures for systems

Course Outline

- Impairment procedures
- Valves and fire department connections IT&M
- Sprinkler system IT&M
- Standpipe system IT&M
- Fire service mains and water tanks IT&M
- Fire Pump IT&M:
- Fixed water and foam system IT&M

Experience Level - This seminar is best suited for participants who are:

- Code Officials
- Designers/Contractors
- Design Professionals Architects/Engineers
- Building Owners/Managers
- Installers
- Insurance Representative

Prerequisites - For attendees who:

- Know~ and applies the codes
- Has one to two years in code enforcement
- Possesses s basic knowledge In construction
- Can read end understand basic construction drawings